To whom it may concern,

I confirm that Nicola Marinelli is/was employed as Senior Project Manager with Michelin France account and working with him from 2013 on the ITM6 Migration Project and other RFS related activities

Nicolas has been responsible for End to End on the IIM6 migration project which was critical movement for the customer on all the monitoring for the prod and non prod servers and has been involved at every step of this project, Every issue that we have faced during the migration was pro-actively resolved by Nicola in most of the situation and other issues that occur during the progress of the project was dealt in a very professional and swift manner, His response on project resources queries has been prompt and very helpful information was always shared including the training materials for reference and guidance in similar instances that may occur in the future.

Nicola has been a always a very reliable, dependable, Hard working PM that i have worked with in this account, He has always acknowledged everyone extra effort and his commitment to the project has been second to none, Most important quality was his attention to detail on projects we have worked together
